

SGAAC 2017 – Cycle Two

Creative Community Grant Program

The Spring Green Area Arts Coalition mission statement affirms that SGAAC “strives to build enthusiasm for and accessibility to the arts so they become meaningful, irresistible and indispensable to each of our 10,000 residents/ constituents.” The Creative Community Grant Program provides support for area artists and organizations offering visual, literary and performance art experiences to area residents.

1. Applications must be complete and submitted by September 8, 2017. The Technical Assistant may suggest revisions that will be due on September 11.

2. A public meeting of the grant review panel will be September 14, 2017 at 6:30 pm. The location will be announced. Applicants are encouraged, but not required, to attend. Applicants may not make a statement or presentation about the project. The panel may ask the applicant clarification questions.

3. The recommendations of the review panel will be presented at the meeting of the SGAAC Board of Directors following the Panel Review.

4. Applicants may appeal decisions made by the review panel for procedural error or conflict of interest only. Appeals must be filed with the SGAAC within ten days of grant award announcements.

Responsibilities of Grantees

6. After a signed contract between SGAAC and the grantee is received, a check for 75% of the award will be provided. The balance will be remitted after the receipt of the final report, due within 90 days after project completion.

7. Grantees must file a final report that accounts for funds and evaluates the effectiveness of the project.

8. Grantees are required to promote their project to the general public. Copies of all promotional materials must be attached to the final report.

9. All promotional publicity, news releases, and printed programs must display a prominent acknowledgement of SGAAC and the Wisconsin Arts Board (WAB) funding.

10. Grantees who are unable to complete their project for any reason must return all funds to SGAAC upon request.

This program is made possible by the Wisconsin Arts Board and from business and to flourish in the River Valley!

possible by funds made available to us from the Wisconsin Arts Board matching funds generously and graciously contributed by local individual supporters of the arts. Thank you for helping the arts

Creative Community Grant Requirements

Eligible Projects

Proposed projects may include public exhibitions, performances, publications, touring productions, commissioned art and educational activities. Artistic disciplines may encompass dance, theater, music, folk arts, literary arts, video, film and visual arts. Priority will be given to projects that maximize community involvement and community impact.

Eligible Applicants

Individuals and organizations in the River Valley Community (roughly the River Valley School District) are eligible to apply for SGAAC grants. Organizations must have 501(c)(3) status. Individuals are not required but are strongly encouraged to file through a non-profit Fiscal Receiver to eliminate tax consequences of grants received. Individuals or organizations who have received funding in a previous year and have not filed their final reports are ineligible. An applicant is no longer eligible for a Creative Community Grant if they have already received funding for three years without significant innovation to the project.

Criteria

The following criteria will be evaluated for project grant proposals:

- *Community benefit
- *Artistic merit and/or innovation
- *Ability of the applicant to successfully complete the project
- *Potential for the applicant's growth and development
- *Ability to provide matching funds
- *Well developed plan to assess and evaluate how fully the project fulfilled on its intended outcomes

NOTE: Applicants are required to match the Creative Community Grant funds dollar for dollar, with at least half of these funds in cash. Cash match may include revenue from ticket sales. (E.g., if you receive a $1,000 grant, you must match that with $1,000 matching funds, including at least $500 in cash).

Applicants are required to include a public outreach component in the project. In addition, the review panel will make an effort to ensure that recipients are from a variety of artistic disciplines and that projects target a range of audiences.

Grant Amounts

Awards will be no more than $2,500. The review panel may approve an amount less than that requested by the applicant.
